ISSUE N° 21

The denlike space that serves as the wife's office is outfitted with wraparound banquettes devised by Leverone, a pair of Kaspar Hamacher tables, and a vintage Pierre Jeanneret cane lounge chair; the rug at left is by FJ Hakimian, and the one at right is a custom design by Leverone. Opposite: A painting by Callum Innes hangs at the end of the entrance gallery, which features a cypress ceiling and wall of louvers that can be opened and closed; the bench is by Hamacher, the rug is by Fort Street Studio, and a vintage Willy Guhl concrete Loop chair stands on the terrace.
